

Educators Against Racism And Apartheid
invites you to a workshop:

Combatting Racism And Apartheid

Thursday, March 22, 4 p.m.
La Guardia High School
64th and Amsterdam

Hear about "LaKing", an effort by students and staff at LaGuardia and Martin Luther King, Jr. High Schools to combat racism.

Learn about apartheid and racism through activities in math, science, literature, drama, and other subject areas. This will be useful for teachers, group leaders, parents, and students. Everyone is welcome!

Celebrate the independence of Namibia!.

The workshop will be followed by a general meeting of Educators Against Racism And Apartheid.

Students, parents+teachers are welcome.
Resources * * * Refreshments