

SOUTH AFRICA, 1988: THE YEAR OF UNITED ACTION

Terror and Bannings Have Not Stopped the Struggle

The Task Force on Southern Africa of the Church Council of Greater Seattle invites you to come and hear a lifelong activist in the struggle against the apartheid South African regime:

SOLLY SIMELANE

Deputy Representative of the African National Congress
Observer Mission to the United Nations

WHERE: First Baptist Church
Harvard and Seneca Streets
Seattle, Washington

WHEN: Sunday, October 9th
7:00 p.m.

Mr. Simelane was involved in the student movement protests and has been a trade unionist, organizing for the garment and textile unions and tobacco workers in South Africa. He left South Africa in 1962, heeding the African National Congress' call to do work abroad. Mr. Simelane has served as a diplomatic representative of the ANC in various posts in Egypt, Tanzania, Zambia and Italy before joining the Observer Mission to the United Nations. He will speak about the current situation in Southern Africa, particularly South Africa.
