"It is up to the international community to exert pressure on the South African Government...especially economic pressure, to go to the conference table... This is our very last chance for change because if it doesn't happen...the bloodbath will be inevitable." Archbishop Desmond Tutu (October 17, 1984)

Dear friend,

As the violence continues to escalate in South Africa, there is a strong anti-apartheid effort sprouting up in the Southeastern Michigan area churches, community and civic organizations. More people are getting involved actively in the struggle to free South Africa. More people are asking the question: what can I do to help?

The Michigan Coalition for Human Rights (MCHR) is inviting you to be a part of a very special event: a comprehensive one-day Symposium on South and Southern Africa.

We invite you to be with us on Tuesday, March 10 at 7:00 P.M. at Barth Hall (4800 Woodward Ave.) in Detroit to kick off the planning of this historic event.

We would like to request that the invitees who are unable to attend be sure to send a representative who can report back to you. This will ensure that a diverse spectrum of opinions of represented.

Again, we would be honored to have you join us in what we think can be one of the most important anti-apartheid events in Detroit's history.

Please be a part of it.

Peace,

H. Coleman McGehee, Jr.
Bishop H. Coleman McGehee, Jr.
President, MCHR Board of Directors
