

CALL TO CONSCIENCE

Challenge to U.S. Foreign Policy in Southern Africa

MEMO

TO: CTC State and Regional Coordinators

FROM: Jerry Herman, National Contact Person

I wanted to inform you that the National Steering Committee of the Call to Conscience Action Network did not decide to activate the network during the South African election period. However, there is the feeling that May 6th, the election day is probably the beginning of an intense period of struggle inside South Africa, which will reach its height on the anniversary of the SOWETO uprising on the 16th of June.

There is every reason to believe that the network will be activated during this period. I would urge you to take the time out to contact your state and local contacts (this should be done on some fairly regular basis anyway), and to work out how best to communicate the activation. You ought, also feed your sense of what form the activation ought to take and communicate that back to the National Steering Committee. At this point, I do not have a sense of what representatives to the National Steering Committee are thinking in relation to the kind of event that might activate the network or the form they might suggest that it take. I do know that they are watching events there and here very closely.
