Dear Co-Chairs and Steering Committee members,

Our next meeting is on Tuesday, May 11, at 11:30 a.m.
SHARP until 1:30 p.m. at ACTWU, 333 S. Ashland. Two special people will join us at the meeting:

- > MOLEFE TSELE was an education activist in the Mass Democratic Movement in South Africa. He is a pastor studying now at the Lutheran School of Theology on Chicago's south side. Jailed during the Moses Mayekiso trial, he was well aware of the international labor effort to free Mayekiso.
- > Chicagoan DANY FLEMING recently returned from spending a year and a half working with the Congress of South African Trade Unions helping to set up union computer systems.

May 11 is an opportunity for Molefe and Dany to share with us their insights on South Africa and to join us in a discussion of COSATU's request that the Illinois Labor Network send a delegation to South Africa to further union-to-union ties.

We hope to see you, or your representative, on May 11.
Lunch will be available. I'd greatly appreciate if you let me know whether or not you're planning to attend.

In solidarity,

Kathy Devine
