

A Brief, But Not Exhaustive List of Articles, etc., That Mention or Focus on SASP

Sylvia Hill. Presentation: The Free South African Movement.

October 10- 13, 2004. Durban, South Africa

<http://www.anc.org.za/un/conference/shill.html>

Sylvia Hill. No Easy Victories: African Liberation and American Activists over a Half Century, 1950-2000. Africa World Press. Background Interview.

Conducted by William Minter. September 23, 2003.

http://www.noeasyvictories.org/interviews/int11\_hill.php

Sylvia Hill. No Easy Victories: African Liberation and American Activists over a Half Century, 1950-2000. Africa World Press. Background Interview.

Conducted by William Minter. August 12, 2004.

http://www.noeasyvictories.org/interviews/int16\_hill.php

Researcher's Guides: Southern Africa Support Project Collection. Moorland-Spingarn Research Center. Howard University.

<http://sarap.howard.edu/documents/guidemodify.asp?intIDGuide=15>

Joseph Jordan. The Call of Revolution: The Anti-Apartheid Movement in the

1970's. In No Easy Victories: African Liberation and American Activists,

1953-2002. An Africa Action Book', Edited by Charles Cobb, Jr., Gail Hovey, and William Minter. Africa World Press. pp. 133-128. 2007

Joseph Jordan and Sylvia Hill. That Covenant Was Kept: Lessons of the U.S.

Anti-Apartheid Movement. (Guest Co-Editors) Crossroads Journal, No. 50, April 1995.

Cecelie Counts. The FSAM Story: Cecelie Counts-Blakey Recounts the Origins, Achievement and Shortcomings of the Free South Africa Movement. Crossroads, April 1995, 12

Sylvia Hill. Free South Africa! Notes from My Diary: Sylvia Hill Offers a Personal History of Work in the Free South Africa Movement.

Crossroads, April 1995, 15-16.

Joseph Jordan. Solidarity as an Organizing Principle. Crossroads

Journal, No. 50, April 1995.

Mark Harrison. Churches at the Forefront. Crossroads, April 1995, 23-24.

Joseph Jordan. The International Link: Connecting the Struggles - An Interview With Gay McDougall. Crossroads, April 1995, 25-26.

Cecelie Counts, Sylvia Hill and Sandra Hill. Notes on Building International Solidarity in the U.S. The Black Scholar 15, no. 6 (1984): 44-52.

Film -

Remember these news items??

The Associated Press
August 28, 1980, Thursday, AM cycle

Record Grants go to African Groups
GENEVA, Switzerland

The World Council of Churches announced plans Thursday for distributing $775,000 from its Special Fund to Combat Racism, including record grants to the guerrilla-supported South-West African People's Organization in Namibia and the African National Congress in South Africa.

SWAPO, recognized by the United Nations as the legitimate representative of the people in South African-controlled Namibia, will receive $200,000 and $150,000 will go to the ANC, which is conducting both an armed and a non-violent struggle on behalf of blacks in white-ruled South Africa.

The remaining $425,000 will be divided among 45 organizations of "racially oppressed people," according to the World Council announcement.

The largest grant in the United States - and the third largest overall - will be $25,000 to TransAfrica in Washington D.C., which lobbies for what it sees as a "more progressive U.S. foreign policy toward the nations of Africa and the Caribbean," the announcement said.

Other U.S. groups supported by the Council's fund: Center for Constitutional Rights, New York, $5,000; Washington Office on Africa, Washington, D.C., $7,000; Black New York Action Committee, $7,500; Asian Law Caucus, Oakland, Calif., $7,500; Western Shoshone Sacred Association, Lee, Nev., $7,500; Manzon Area Council, Tucson, Ariz., $10,000; Campaign to Oppose Bank Loans to South Africa, Washington, D.C., $10,000; DNA-People's Legal Service, Window Rock, Ariz., $10,000; Haitian Refugee Project, Washington, D.C., $10,000; Institute of the Black World, Atlanta, Ga., $10,000; Save the Native Hawaiians, Washington, D.C., $15,000; Southern Africa Support Project, Washington, D.C.; $10,000.

Other organizations benefiting from the grants are based in Australia, New Zealand, Japan, Puerto Rico, Canada and include "support groups" in nine West European countries.

The distribution raises to $4,230,000 the total handed out since the fund was started ten years ago under the World Council's anti-racist program. The program stirred controversy among the Council's 300 non-Roman Catholic member churches but was reaffirmed at a meeting in Geneva last week of the organization's policy-making Central Committee.

Guidelines of the Special Fund stipulate that "the purpose of the (supported) organizations must not be in conflict with the general purpose of the World Council of Churches" and that the grants must be used for humanitarian activities.

The Washington Post
March 15, 1985, Friday, Final Edition

Swing for the Spring

By Jacqueline Trescott, Washington Post Staff Writer
Style; Arts

WHUR and the Southern Africa Support Project will cosponsor the seventh annual radiothon for Southern Africa Monday. The station will do a remote from Gallery Plaza at Seventh and F streets NW from 6 a.m. to 1 p.m. It hopes to raise $15,000 for the South African Council of Churches . . .

The Washington Post
May 16, 1986, Friday, Final Edition

Radio; Lending a Hand to 'Hands'

By Jacqueline Trescott, Washington Post Staff Writer

Brute Bailey, the program director and morning host at WDJY, will be the emcee for the annual Malcolm X festival at Anacostia Park Sunday from noon to 7 p.m. WPFW-FM (89.3) has organized a retrospective of Malcolm's X's life Monday from 1:30 to 4 p.m. Fundraisers

WHUR-FM (96.3) is sponsoring a radiothon for the Southern Africa Support Project Monday from 6 a.m. to 1 p.m. from Western Plaza. The goal is $10,000 . .

Up Close Donnie Simpson of WKYS will be doing his show from a window at the downtown Woodward & Lothrop next Friday from 6 to 10 a.m.