Dear ACAS Member,

Here are the ACAS activities planned for the annual meeting of the African Studies Association in New Orleans. Since room assignments for events have not been completed yet, please check at the ACAS table in the lobby for exact location of each activity.

Three events are scheduled for Friday, November 22:

12 noon - The ACAS Executive Committee will meet for lunch. Please gather at ACAS lobby table at 11:30 a.m.

2 p.m. - All ACAS members will meet for four concurrent working sessions. Prospective members welcome too!

8 p.m. - ACAS plenary. Major business meeting and elections. Open to all.

Three events are scheduled for Sunday, November 24:

7:30 a.m. - Breakfast meeting for new ACAS officers and Executive Committee.

11 a.m.-1 p.m. - ACAS panel: "Oil & Gold: Middle East-Southern African Relations," Regency H Room.

3-5 p.m. - ACAS panel: "U.S. Policy Toward Southern Africa," Regency H Room.

Two panels are scheduled for Monday, November 25:

11 a.m.-1 p.m. - "The Question of Western Sahara," Grand Room.

3-5 p.m. - "Western Sahara: 51st State of the OAU," Grand Room.

Remember, further information on all these activities will be available from the ACAS table in the lobby. Please visit the table and share your thoughts with other ACAS members -- we look forward to seeing you!

Sincerely,

Ed Ferguson
